

Biography of Mohinder Grover

- Dr. Mohinder Grover is an electrical engineer specializing in reliability and Quality Assurance. In his 40 years in the nuclear industry, he has worked at OPG, AECL/Candu Energy. Mohinder's leadership was recognized by AECL with the AECL President's Distinguished Merit Award.
- Mohinder has represented Canada on the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) Technical Committee 56. In 2012, he was awarded the prestigious 1906 IEC award in recognition of his long standing and distinguished service to the IEC.
- Mohinder was awarded the 2009 PEO/OSPE Citizenship award, 2010 Ontario Medal for Good Citizenship, 2011 Ontario Government Volunteer Service award, 2013 Engineers Canada Meritorious Community Service award, 2015 Standards Council of Canada 25 years volunteer service certificate, and 2017 Order of Honour of the PEO.
- Mohinder has been a registered professional engineer in Ontario since 1976, and a Fellow of Engineers Canada and Engineering Institute of Canada. A member of CNS since 2008, he has been a councillor since 2010, and has been involved in the organization of several CNS and other conferences.