

Brief Bio-Data of Shri S.A. Bhardwaj

Shri S.A. Bhardwaj took over as the Chairman, Atomic Energy Regulatory Board on 1st September, 2015.

Shri Bhardwaj, a Mechanical Engineer from Delhi University and M.Tech. from Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi, began his career with the Department of Atomic Energy in the year 1971 after obtaining training in Nuclear engineering at BARC Training School. He retired as 'Distinguished Scientist' of Department of Atomic Energy and Director (Technical) and Member of Board, Nuclear Power Corporation of India Limited. He also held the positions of Chairman of Board of Directors of Anushakti Vidhyut Nigam Limited and Chairman, Nuclear Fuel Complex Board, Hyderabad.

Shri Bhardwaj was a member of Board of Research in Nuclear Science (BRNS) for a long time. While in NPCIL, he was an important member of nuclear safety design and its review process as well as at Regulatory Body. He has vastly travelled during his professional career to various countries and having vast experience in dealing with leading National and International companies in the area of Nuclear and Power engineering field. He actively participated in various International Atomic Energy Agency Technical Working Group Meetings for Heavy Water Reactors & Fuel. As a member of Atomic Energy Regulatory Board team he participated in technical discussions with United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Shri Bhardwaj is a Fellow of Indian National Academy of Engineering. Before taking over as Chairman, AERB, he was serving the Department as DAE-Homi Bhabha Chair Professor.